HUNTINGDON HAS A DESTRUCTIVE FIRE

Several Business Houses in Tennessee Town in Danger.

Fire That Starts in Lumber Yard
Threatens a West Virginia Town.

A $150,000 FIRE IN QUEBEC

Huntingdon, Tenn., Jan. 13.—Fire broke out in the cellar of Neely & Gardner, clothiers and haberdashers, resulting in the total destruction of their stock and threatened for a while to wipe out Huntingdon's most central business block. Johnson's opera house, Carroll County Democrat, Cumberland Telephone company's central office, Huntingdon Drug Co., Carter & Fowler, grocers, and a number of smaller concerns, with the bank of Huntingdon adjoining, Miss Maud Davidson, night operator in the telephone office, was asleep, and on being awakened found escape cut off by the stairs and with her little brother climbed to an awning and down an iron pole. B. D. Moore, a barber, who, with his wife, occupies rooms in the building, found escape cut off also and they were compelled to make their exit by means of a rope out a window.

Neely & Gardner's loss is $10,000, with insurance of $7,500. The damage to the Johnson block is $500, covered by insurance. Other occupants of the building were damaged more or less by water.

Telephone communication being cut off, Mrs. Oscar Tidwell, who lives at Hotel Olive, ran all the way alone to the power house, eight blocks, and turned in the alarm.

Blaze Started in Lumber Yard.
Williamson, W. Va., Jan. 13.—The Ritter Lumber company's planing mill and lumber yard at Panther were destroyed by fire last night, together with the Norfolk and Western railway station and a number of cars of merchandise and several dwellings. The fire is still raging and all communication with Panther is cut off.

$150,000 Hotel Fire.
Montreal, Quebec, Jan. 13.—A section of the Windsor hotel, one of the largest in Canada, was destroyed by fire last night. Loss $150,000.

COUNT WITTE

DECLARES RUSSIA IS UNFIT TO BE ANYTHING BUT ARIS-TOCRACY.

Internal Machines Said to Have Been Sent to the Premier Recently.

Russia Must Be Aristocracy.
St. Petersburg, Jan. 13.—The Slovo states that at the last conference held at the palace with the czar, Premier Witte made a speech in which he declared: "Russia is unfit for any but an autocratic regime. The government must pursue a strong policy against persons demanding a constitution."

Casualties in Moscow.
St. Petersburg, Jan. 13.—The Novoe Vremya says that the official figures show that 282 persons were killed during the recent uprising at Moscow.

According to the news from the Baltic provinces Governor General Sollogub is following the example of the government in the Caucasus in the confiscation of church property on the ground that it has been used for revolutionary purposes. He also ordered the military to seize the deposits in the Lette Savings bank.

The fact that a number of internal machines addressed to Premier Witte, Interior Minister Durnovo and other high officials have been discovered in the postoffice indicates that a regular group of terrorists is at work.

Frankfort, Ky.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 13.—Cal Newton, who killed George James Smith last August during a dispute over a line fence, was found guilty today, and sentenced to life imprisonment.

LIGHT BILL REASONABLE.

Statement That Lights Cost Library
$50 a Month a Mistake.

"The statement in one of the papers that the lighting bills of the Carnegie Library had averaged $50 a month last year, is an error," said one of the trustees of the library, today. "I have just gone over the bills for the year and find that the average was $26 a month. The electric light people have been very liberal to us and we don't want to see an injustice done them, as this report has."

Manager Hiecker, of the company, has shown the library officials how they can effect a saving in their lights and cut down on that expense. The company also has donated $25 to the library. This, with the free telephone donated by the East Tennessee Telephone Co., are the only donations ever received by the library from corporations.

FUEL FAMINE IN TEXAS

Pan Handle Country Covered With

Fort Worth, Tex., Jan. 13.—The Pan Handle country is covered with snow and a fuel famine prevails in many counties on the plains with consequent suffering. Coal is $20 a ton, and wood, when obtainable, $10 a cord.

SOCIETY WOMAN

STRANGLED AND HER BODY
LEFT IN A VACANT LOT.

Man Arrested For the Crime and Confessed He Assaulted and Killed Her.

Chicago, Jan. 13.—The body of Mrs. Hattie Hollister, a choir singer, and prominent in society, was found in a vacant lot on Belden avenue, this morning.

She had been strangled to death by a copper wire which was twisted tightly around her neck. Mrs. Hollister had been missing since yesterday morning.

Richard Evans, who reported to the police that Mrs. Hollister's body was in a vacant lot, has confessed that he murdered her last night. He said he dragged the woman into a carpenter shop, ravished her, and her entries become so loud he strangled her.

ANOTHER CRUSHER

WILL BE PUT IN BY THE KATTER
JOHN COMPANY.

Expected to Get a Contract to Enrich Stone to Illinois Company.

The F. W. Katterjohn Construction company, of O'Hara, is preparing to put in another crusher at its plant to take care of the demands for commercial stone. The company has never sold its product to anyone aside from the Illinois Central railroad company, but will add that feature to its business. The crusher to be put in will increase the capacity of the plant 600 yards a day.

Mr. F. W. Katterjohn, of the company, is today figuring on a big contract with Mr. G. W. Ingram, of the Southern Illinois company, of Nashville, the company that built the new street on Broadway and has the contract for the work to be done on Jefferson and Kentucky avenue this year. Mr. Ingram is now in the city.

CONFERENCE HELD TODAY.

Relative to an Early Settlement of the Telephone Controversy.

W. L. Granbery, of Nashville, general counsel for the East Tennessee Telephone company, is in the city. With the company's local attorneys, Wheeler Hughes and Berry, he held a conference with some of the members of the council today with reference to the city's suit to oust the company from Paducah. No settlement of the case was made, but it is thought a compromise will be effected in a few days.

Nothing relative to the matter was given out for publication, but the city, it is said, will make the concessions asked for.

FEW NEW STREETS TO BE BUILT IN 1906

Board of Works Will Complete
Those Contracted for.

Sewerage Should Be Extended Before
Additional Reconstruction Comes.

The board of public works is not in favor of building any new streets this year other than those already contracted for, Kentucky avenue, from Fourth out to Ninth and Jefferson from Fifth street to Ninth, and the cross streets, Sixth, Seventh and Ninth.

"We shall have all we can attend to," said a member today, "with this work to give it the proper attention, and moreover, we don't think it is advisable to build any more streets until we get the sewerage system extended. I should like to see the sewerage extended out from Ninth to the city limits, and then Broadway improved from Ninth to Fountain avenue. If this is done the street car company would put in double tracks there, improving its service, and assist in making this a beautiful street."

"We will, in addition to the streets already contracted for, have to rebuild some of the outlying streets and build some new ones, such as 21st street, from the Hinkleville road to the union depot. This will be a gravel street. We have about come to the conclusion that we will have all the gravel streets constructed from now on built on a sub-foundation of six inches of stone. We will use six inches of good gravel on this and put the proper crown on top which will give us an excellent street. The gravel streets we now have, have no crown and the result is that water stands on them, a wagon soon makes a hole, which is always a little pond, and water from this soaks into the foundation and goes on to its work, merrily, of damaging that street. Built right, gravel streets will be as good a street as we want for our outlying streets."

"I am in favor of the city securing a quarry and bringing this rock here for the foundation work under the streets, and also to be used to repair the streets where they have been torn up by plumbers and the gas people. There is all the stone we want within sixteen miles of the city and the expense of getting it here would be little. A rock pile could be established and the labor then would be a small item also."

The city has over $77,000 of the bond issue on hands now, and after paying for the streets to be built this year there should be a balance of $20,000 to $25,000, and the officials are in favor of suspending any other street work until the sewers are built, agreeing with the board of works that this should be done.

NOT DECIDED

What Will Be Done in Regard to Siding Leatherworkers' Scale.

It seems from present indications that there will either be a strike of leatherworkers in Paducah, or that three of the local establishments will be run as "open shops," in which either union or non-union men may work.

The Rehkopf company and Starks-Tilman company have refused to sign the scale, having already been running open shops, and the Paducah Saddlery company, at Fourth and Jefferson streets, which has been a union shop, has declined to sign this year unless the other local establishments sign. It is not known what will be done until the various committees report to the union the result of their visits to the employers.

MANY APPLICATIONS

Issued This Week By the Charity Club.

Miss Corrie Grundy, secretary of the Charity club, has been busier this week than at anytime this winter.

She issued about 100 small orders during the week. The applications average twenty a day for the week, but of course some were undeserving and were turned down. This has been a busy week, and Miss Grundy expects to continue to receive numerous applications for aid as long as the weather continues bad.

Mr. John Rock assumes his position as secretary and treasurer of the Paducah Furniture company Monday. At the reorganization of the company two weeks ago occasioned by the death of Mr. George Rock, Mr. Rock was elected secretary and treasurer. Mr. Ed Woolfolk president, and Mr. L. P. Jones vice president. The directors of the company are Ed Woolfolk, L. P. Jones, John Rock and F. W. Katterjohn.

To Protect Butchers.

The butchers hold a meeting tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Elks hall to consider matters of interest to themselves, one of which is a suggestion to the council that everyone selling meat be compelled to pay a license. They claimed that their business is injured a good deal by grocers through the city, and are taking this step to protect their business.

P. M. Copeland and Fayette Gardner have formed a partnership in tobacco rehandling business and will have their business in the Blalock barn. These gentlemen will cater to the farmers who belong to the Tobacco association.

To Locate in Paducah.

Mr. L. O. Stephenson is moving his undertaking goods to Paducah and will occupy a handsome room in the Empire building near the corner of Seventh and Broadway. He intends to have one of the finest undertaking parlors and carriage outfits in the city of Paducah. He is a very popular business man and will no doubt enjoy a lucrative share of the business. He will not take up his residence there permanently for several weeks on account of Mrs. Stephenson's health.—Mayfield Messenger.

Maurice B. Nash, Jr., and Frank Fulton, who have been interested in a stove mill company at Louisville, have options, with some St. Louis capitalists, on some big properties in St. Louis, and if secured a $500,000 company will be organized with these gentlemen prominent in the organization. It will take thirty to forty days to work out the details and organize the company, and this work is being done now. Mr. Nash and Mr. Fulton were formerly with the local plant of the V. J. Blow Co.

Mr. J. M. McCandless, of the Standard Tire company, has returned from a trip to Arkansas, where with Mr. G. A. Scott, of Detroit, he closed a deal for the purchase of over 60,000,000 feet of oak timber, or nearly 2,000,000 railroad ties, representing an investment of over $700,000.

Business with the wholesale houses has been better this week than the same week last year. The weather has not been so cold, the roads are better, and the distribution from the retailers more free, with the result that trade has been good. The retailers, too, have completed their inventories and are now filling in their stocks.

BOARD OF HEALTH HELD MEETING TODAY

Does Not Want Milk and Meat Inspector Abolished.

Will Send a Committee Before the Council to Protest—Grease in Sewers.

NEW CIVIL ENGINEER HERE.

The board of health held a meeting at the city hall this morning to take up general business and to receive the report of the Meat and Milk Inspector.

It has been suggested that the office of meat and milk inspector be abolished, and the board today appointed a committee to go before the council and urge that the office be continued.

"There is no more important office than this one," said a member of the board today. "It is simply imperative that the meat and milk should be inspected, and wherever any tainted meat or impure milk is found, it should be immediately destroyed. At least half of the tuberculosis in the children is caused by impure milk, and it is increasing all the time. To think of the prospects of our being left to the mercy and avarice of unscrupulous milk or meat dealers would appall anyone who knew just what it means."

"Now, in the report of the inspector brought in today he cited several cases where he had found decayed and infected meats on the market, and of one case where he found two milk cows at one of the dairies with tuberculosis in its most advanced stage. It is to avoid this that we want the office. Tuberculosis is increasing everywhere each year, and is making great ravages on the human family, and as we must safeguard the health of the community from danger from the disease in every possible way, we would regret very much to see the office abolished."

Dr. C. G. Warner is the present inspector and there are two other veterinary surgeons who are probable candidates for the position. If the council sees fit to continue it.

The board of public works complained to the mayor about the people running their kitchen and other greasy drainage into the sanitary sewers and stopping it up.

"This one thing is giving us a great deal of trouble," said a member of the board today, "and we intend to warrant every one hereafter who indulges in the practice. We want to keep the sewers in good condition and will, if this will do it."

Mr. Enrl Leslie, a civil engineer, of Cairo, Ill., is in the city and will probably go to work for the city, at the office of City Engineer L. A. Washington, when the weather opens up the work for the street department. There will be abundance of work for a good engineer and Mr. Leslie will probably find a permanent position.

The joint finance committee, Mayor Yeiser and Auditor Kirkland met last night and further discussed financial matters with a view to completing the appropriation ordinance.

ture continues to favor out-door operations and to prolong the demand for building materials and prevent a cessation of labor at a period when there is always more or less enforced idleness. Mining lines, particularly iron and steel machinery and inter-related industries were active as heretofore and the outlook for 1906 grows even more promising while the general tendency is for prices of finished products to advance.

Commodity prices on the whole have reached a record level, though food-stuffs range somewhat lower than manufactured products. Collections average fair to good, all depending on the territory considered. Labor in the building trades is active the country over. Wheat including flour exports for week 4,769,000 bushels against 7,011,000 this week of last year; July 1 to date 73,784,000 against 56,875,000 last year. Corn exports for week 5,343,000 bushels against 2,932,000 year ago; July 1 to date 48,561,000 against 21,619,000 in 1905.

TALKED TOO MUCH.

Kansas Mayor Charged With Using Bad Language.

Kansas City, Jan. 13.—"Damn the law; God could not enforce the prohibition law in Kansas, and Jesus Christ could not."

Rev. John C. Lynn, a Presbyterian preacher, and president of the Civic League, testifying at Kansas City, Kan., in the case brought by the state to oust Mayor W. W. Rose from office because of his alleged failure to enforce the law, testified that the above words were spoken by Mayor Rose on May 6, 1905.

The case is being tried before H. G. Larnier, a special commissioner appointed by Gov. Hoch.

LIVELY FIGHT.

Negroes Fought and Use Many Weapons But Neither Is Hurt.

Walter Ezell and Ed Givens, colored, were arrested this afternoon by Officers Hurley and Singery and Detective T. J. Moore, on a charge of fighting. Ezell claims to be cut, but there is only a slight scratch on him. The trouble took place in an alley between Ohio and Jackson streets on Seventh and it is claimed that knives, skillies and many other things were used by the two men. Neither is seriously hurt.

TEACHERS PAID

SUPERINTENDENT RECEIVED $2-

Weather Interferes With Attendance —Examinations 26th and 27th of This Month.

This morning County School Supt. Hillington is paying off the county teachers.

Last night he received the fifth monthly installment of pay for the teachers, amounting to $2,125. His office has been filled all day with teachers who came in to get their check.

The weather has interfered in a way with the attendance in the county schools, but Supt. Hillington reports very satisfactory work.

Examinations for county school graduates will be held at the county superintendent's office and at Palestine school on the 26th and 27th of this month.

ANOTHER FAILURE

IN CLEVELAND, O., AS A RESULT OF THE PRIOR SCANDAL.

Prior's Forgeries Will Amount to Hundreds of Thousands of Dollars.

Cleveland, O., Jan. 13.—The brokerage house of Parsons, Snyder & Co., failed to open today. Later George H. Snyder announced to numerous traders that A. O. Brown & Co., of New York, had bought the house. The failure was a result of the Denison Prior failure, after Prior's sale.

The firm later today made an assignment and the liabilities will reach $150,000. A member of the firm said Prior owed them $73,000 when he committed suicide.

The bankers' committee investigating the affairs of Denison Prior & Co., issued a statement today saying that Prior's forgeries in municipal bonds will amount to hundreds of thousands of dollars. It is stated that the forgeries have covered more than a year in time, and may amount to $700,000. The bonds forged are on the cities of Alpena, Mich., Canton, Ohio, and South Sharon, Pa.

MORALES ON WAY TO PORTO RICO NOW

His Resignation Was Accepted
at San Domingo Yesterday.

Secretary Slaw to Remain at Head of Treasury Until March 1, 1907.

PHILIPPINE TARIFF BILL IS UP.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 13.—Advices to the war and state departments indicate that former President Morales' resignation as chief executive of the Dominican Republic, was accepted yesterday.

President Morales sailed for San Juan, Porto Rico, on the U. S. gunboat Dubuque.

Shaw to Remain a Year Longer.

Washington, Jan. 13.—Secretary Shaw has agreed to remain at the head of the treasury department until March 4, 1907. The secretary told the president he had decided on this course yesterday, and then would probably retire to private life, though he had several flattering offers from large financial corporations in New York and Philadelphia.

Gaines Favors Free Trade.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 13.—The house met an hour earlier than usual this morning to continue the debate on the Philippine tariff bill. The first speaker was Representative Gaines, democrat, of Tennessee. His contention was that there should be absolute free trade between this country and the Philippines.

Appointed to High Position.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 13.—President Roosevelt decided to appoint as register of the treasury to succeed Judson W. Lyons, Professor W. T. Vernon, president of the Quindaro Institute, one of the most prominent colored men in the country. The position is the highest one in the government which, by precedent, is always given to a representative of the negro race.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 13.—An order has been issued at the post-office department establishing a post-office at Danville, Texas. Col. Cecil Lyon, one of the president's friends, established the office.

GATE REMOVED.

On the Carrio Road At Instance of Judge Lightfoot.

County Judge R. T. Lightfoot has ordered that an obstruction be removed from the Carrio Landing road in the county, and a deputy sheriff left today to attend to it.

The Carrio Landing road is near Ragland has been used but little of late. It is said that some farmer put up a gate on the road and the road being kept up by the county and being a public thoroughfare, the judge ordered the gate removed.

The following, from the Owensboro Messenger of Jan. 11th, says of the Chinese Comic Opera San Toy which is playing matinee and night performances today at the Kentucky: "San Toy," which was given at the Grand last evening, is a very pretty opera and the music of many of the songs is quite catchy. The performance was witnessed by a rather small audience. The hit of the evening was made by George E. Mack, who is the leading comedian of the part of "Li, a Chinaman who has traveled." His witty sayings and his original and comic actions won much applause for him."

new comedy, The Mountain Climber, in Atlantic City, Jan. 29.

The Winning Girl, which was not successful as a musical play, is being converted into a straight comedy and will take the road again in February with a small cast and no chorus.

Harry Woodruff has been engaged for the leading role in Tom Brown of Harvard, a play written for Jas. Young, and to be produced by Henry Miller.

Eleanor Robson will be seen in Clyde Fitch's new play, The Girl Who Has Everything, at Cleveland, Feb. 1.

Wm. A. Brady's Chicago Shakespearean Festival is considered a serious project. In a personal letter Brady outlines his plans as follows: "I have an option on two weeks at the Auditorium, Chicago, in April, and I am going to give them a Shakespearean Festival. I have offered Mansfield $5,000 for one performance of 'Richard III,' with a star cast. Lackaye is to do Shylock, Mantell King Lear and Miss George Cymbeline. Viola Allen I have asked to present 'All's Well That Ends Well,' Henrietta Crossman 'As You Like It' and Modjeska 'Macbeth.' In the company I am planning to have Frederick Warde, Louis James, Mary Shaw, James O'Neill, E. J. Morgan and Clara Morris. The big feature of all the features, I should say, will be 'Julius Caesar' with a cast embracing Mantell, Lackaye, James O'Neill, Frederick Warde, Louis James and other stars.

"The Chicago people behind the scheme do not seek to make money. They are Shakespearean enthusiasts. If the project succeeds I shall do it myself at the New Amsterdam on my own account."

A Good Tramp Show.

There are few tramp shows on the road which will bear creditable repetition, but The King of Tramps, which comes to the Kentucky for two performances next Saturday, is enjoying a popularity that reflects credit upon the author of the play and the production. The comedy is classed among the best written and best expressed on the American stage. It is a bright, neat, melodious attraction, free from all suggestiveness and does not least the usual rum-soaked, husky-voiced, shambling hobo invariably seen with an attraction of this title. Instead, the leading character presented, is bright, sunny and interestingly amusing and given with farcical faithfulness to the type. A large and capable company of farceurs, singers and dancers surround the principals and the performance is enlivened with many up-to-date specialties. The management carries a fine concert band and orchestra, which will be pleasing news to music lovers.

In so far as the intrinsic merit of the bookings have been for the first half of the present theatrical season in Paducah, up to date metropolitan and star attractions have been few in comparison with some former season, but this has been due, in a large measure, to the yellow fever scare in the south during the autumn months. From now on, local playgoers are assured a splendid line of attractions to round-out the remainder of the season. Manager Roberts has used every effort to secure the best obtainable in the dramatic line and the following attest to his success:

The Maid and the Minnny, Miss Mary Emerson, Rose Coghlan in The Duke of Killcraunkle, The Wizard of Oz; Mildred Holland in The Lily and the Prince, Robin Hood, Eva Tanguay in The Sambo Girl, Richard Carle in The Mayor of Tokio, Adelaide Thurston, Chas. B. Hanford in Ingomar, James O'Neill in Monte Cristo, Viola Allen in The Toast of the Town, The Isle of Spice, Sousa's Band. Manager Roberts has a number of big successes in view which will likely be booked for the near future.

MAJOR SAUNDERS PAINFULLY HURT

His Pistol Fell From His Pocket at Mayfield and Went Off.

Bullet Struck Him in the Left Ankle and Ranged Upward in His Leg.

THE WOUND IS NOT SERIOUS

Deputy U. S. Marshal George W. Saunders, of Mayfield, was accidentally shot this morning shortly before 7 o'clock at Mayfield while preparing to take the early morning accommodation train to Paducah.

Major Saunders was sitting in the depot waiting room at Mayfield waiting for his train. The engine whistled as it approached the depot and the officer started from his seat to board the train. In some way his 32-calibre pistol had worked up in his hip pocket and as he reached a standing posture the gun fell to the floor and was discharged.

The ball struck Major Saunders in the left leg just above the ankle and ranged upward. As soon as the sound of the pistol's discharge was heard, friends rushed in to lend assistance, and the injured officer was taken home, where medical aid was summoned. Physicians say the wound is painful but not necessarily serious, although the ball will have to be cut out.

Major Saunders is one of the best known and most efficient men in the government service in the state and his many friends here and elsewhere will be grieved to learn of the accident which will probably disable him for some little time.

Major Saunders has been a deputy marshal for several years and has always carried his pistols without even the slightest accident until today. He comes to Paducah several times throughout the week, and is very popular here.

FEDERATION OF LABOR

Is Investigating the Recent Election of Officers Held in Kentucky.

Louisville, Ky., Jan. 13.—Edgar Perkins, president of the Indiana State Federation of Labor, who has been in the city for several days taking evidence in the Kentucky State Federation muddle, has gone to Indianapolis. Mr. Perkins was selected by Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor to investigate the charges, preferred by the Louisville delegates, who walked out of the convention of the Kentucky State Federation of Labor at Covington about a month ago. Twenty-three delegates from Louisville withdrew from the convention, charging that the president, James D. Wood, had violated the constitution by allowing delegates from the miners' union to cast more votes than they were entitled to by law.

The Louisville delegates charged that five delegates from the United Mine Workers of the Western district of Kentucky cast about 65 votes, when they were entitled to only 25 delegate votes. Mr. Perkins will likely go to Central City in a day or two where he will take the evidence of the miners and President James D. Wood. A decision in the matter is expected by the latter part of the month.

Should the contention of the Louisville delegates be sustained the election of officers of the Kentucky State Federation of Labor would be declared void and a new election ordered.

ST. LOUIS MAN

BEING GROOMED BY CAIRO FOR PRESIDENT OF KITTY.

Princeton is Trying to Dispose of All of Her Last Season's Players.

Will Paducah please not forget that East St. Louis, Jacksonville, Danville and Vincennes will have a voice in league affairs. Now go ahead and fix your pins and see them tumbled over as others have been in the past.

Perhaps Paducah would like to have as president some one that would be subservient to it—which would mean more Kieferism. There will be six voices in the selection of every officer in the league. Cairo and Paducah having each only one vote.

If the Kitty can get into class C, of which there is no doubt, the aggregate population, granting to Paducah its 30,000 which it claims, will exceed 250,000 and enable the individual clubs to reap a real financial benefit in developing young talent—$500 down for each and every drafted player. Now, can the Pink Headed Splinter see why it is advisable to leave inside things alone, since he knows nothing in relation to them?

The man The Bulletin has in view for president is well known throughout the United States as a sporting writer of well-known intelligence. He is the president of a St. Louis amateur athletic association. It is not known that he will accept, as the matter has not up to the present time, directly or indirectly been suggested to him. He will add great prestige to the league and it has been through him that the metropolitan press of St. Louis and Chicago have taken such an active interest in the reorganization of the Kitty.—Cairo Bulletin.

Eleven of the players of the Princeton team last season have gone to higher company this season. This is a record that no team in the Kitty league can equal and shows the material of which the Princeton team was made up. According to an article in the Cincinnati Enquirer on the changes in the K. I. T. former Princeton men will be in the following teams this season: Downslag with Nashville, and Becker with Shreveport, in the Southern league; Fleming with Duquesne, and "Petey" Taylor with Springfield, in the Three-I; Carnes with Evansville; Tommy Smith with Dayton, and O'Leary with Springfield in the Central; McAndrews in the Iowa State league; Kipp with Macon, Ga., in the South Atlantic and Wagner with Waco, Tex., in the Texas league.

Altogether over fifty of the former stars of the Kitty will be seen in faster company this season, and it will be watched with a great deal of interest by the managers of the major leagues.—Princeton Democrat.

Secretary Swartz has received a letter from McNamara, sending regards to all the fans here and wishing Princeton success in this season's baseball world. McNamara and wife are on the vaudeville stage, being in Chicago at the present time.—Princeton Democrat.

Fitzpatrick's Cold Cream

Because of its unequalled qualifications as a cleansing agent for the face is rapidly gaining a national popularity.

The following letter from Miss Rose Cecilia Shay, the singer of international fame, is conclusive evidence of its excellence:

OMAHA, Neb., Dec. 14, 1925. Mr. W. M. Fitzpatrick, Paducah, Ky.

Dear Sir: I have used the Fitzpatrick Cold Cream and find it delightful. It has my unqualified approval.

Very sincerely, ROSE CECILIA SHAY.

How to Cure Rheumatism

I searched the whole earth for a specific for Rheumatism—something that I or any physician could feel safe in prescribing—something that we could count on not only occasionally, but with reasonable certainty. For the ravages of Rheumatism are everywhere and genuine relief is rare. After twenty years of search and experiment, I learned of the German chemical I now employ. And I knew then that my search and my efforts were well rewarded. For this chemical, in combination with others, gave me the basis of a remedy which in the cure of Rheumatism is practically certain. In many, many tests and difficult cases this prescription has with regularity justified the confidence I have placed in it. Mild cases are sometimes reached by a single package—for sale by 40,000 druggists.

I don't mean that Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Tablets can turn bony joints into flesh again and never fail—that is impossible. But they will with reasonable certainty drive from the blood the poison that causes pain and swelling, and then that is the end of the pain and swelling—the end of the suffering—the end of Rheumatism. Any Rheumatic sufferer who writes may receive my little book on Rheumatism, including professional advice as to diet, etc., free. With the book I will also send, without charge, my "Health Token," an intended passport to good health. Address Dr. Shoop, Box 2171, Racine, Wis.

PUBLIC MONUMENTS.

Will Be Considered At Meeting of Historical Society.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 13.—A meeting of the new joint committee on public monuments and historical records has been called for 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, January 23, at which representatives of historical societies in Kentucky are invited. Questions concerning public monuments will be considered, especially in reference to placing two statues of Kentuckians in the Hall of Fame in the national capitol.

It is practically certain that the legislature will make appropriations for the repair of the Clay statue in the Lexington cemetery.

The Week In Society.

WINTER'S WOOLING.

Where gay Autumn sat alone beside the summer's flame, Old Winter with his frosty beard in haste a-wooling came. He told her of his palaces Among the northern snows, Where like a bonfire in the sky The bright aurora glows.

Then she took off her crimson cloak, And doffed her russet shoes, And left her yellow petticoat Upon the frozen dews, And now behold her as she stands Arrayed in all the pride Of snowy satin, lace and pearls, King Winter's royal bride.

—Minna Irving, in Jan. Lippincott.

The Social Calendar.

Each day of the week has had its quota of entertaining, and the social calendar has been pleasantly full. In fact, nothing served to quicken the knowledge of Paducah's growing metropolitanism so much as three entertainments in one afternoon with "most everybody" at each one, it seemed.

The coming week already has some smart affairs announced and there is probability of the weeks being busy ones from now until Lent begins, which is February 28.

Harry Gilbert, Composer.

The Matinee Musical club will meet on Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the parlors of the Eagle club house on Broadway. It will be an "open meeting" of the club and each active and associate member will be permitted to bring one guest. This is in especial honor of the composer of the afternoon.

It will be a Harry Gilbert program entirely, and the compositions of this played young Paducahan will be sung and gifted by some of the city's most notable talent. Mr. Gilbert's friends in the city are legion and there will be any number anxious for the pleasure of doing him and the occasion all honor.

Mrs. George Flournoy is the leader for the afternoon, and the program is:

"La Mariposa" Danza Mexicana—Mr. Harry Gilbert.
"Apparitions" Petite Suite of 3 Songs—Mrs. David M. Flournoy.
"Trenschacht" Romanza for Violin—Miss Allie Bagby.
"Aches of Roses"—Mr. Edwin J. Paxton.
"By Sylvan Paths" Pastoral—Mr. Harry Gilbert.

a. "Were I a Bird."
b. "Love-Sonnet."—Mrs. David M. Flournoy.

Cord Party For Visitors This Afternoon.

Mrs. Edmund P. Noble is entertaining at cards this afternoon in her parlors at the Palmer House, complimentary to Mrs. W. M. Rawls, of Evansville, Ind., Mrs. Robert D. Garrett, Mrs. James Williams, and Miss Selena Smith, of Princeton, Ky., visitors in the city. There are nine tables of guests.

Mrs. Clements Receives for Miss Glass.

Mrs. James Clements' reception on Thursday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock in honor of her guest Miss Mary Glass of Madison, Ind., was a very charming occasion of the week. The reception rooms were adorned with ferns, palms, poinsettias and crimson carnations, giving an artistic color-effect of red and green.

In the parlors the receiving party were: Mrs. Clements, Miss Glass, Mrs. A. R. Meyers, Mrs. Minnie Rankin, Mrs. Charles Kiger, Mrs. James P. Smith, and Mrs. Harris Rankin.

The punch table, prettily decorated in the prevailing color-motif, was in the library, and was presided over by Mrs. Louis M. Rieke, assisted by Miss May Owen and Miss Frances Terrell.

In the dining room the table was set with a center-effect of crimson carnations and ropes of smilax extending from the chandeliers, and red-shaded candles. Mrs. Wynne Tully, Mrs. Elizabeth Quick, Mrs. L. E.

McCabe, Miss Myrtle Decker, Miss Ruth Weil and Miss Ada Enders received the guests here, and a pretty course-luncheon was attractively served.

An orchestra played during the hours.

Mrs. Sherrill Entertains for Visitors.

Mrs. Clarence Sherrill's card party on Wednesday afternoon was a pretty compliment to Mrs. William Hughes' trio of popular visitors, Mrs. Robert Garrett, Mrs. James Williams and Miss Selena Smith, of Princeton. The color-effect was pink and the rose-tiden was charmingly carried out in all the decorations and details. The rooms were most attractive with smilax and La France roses, and the tables were daintily water-color effects in the La France.

The game prize went to Mrs. I. D. Wilcox, and the visitor's prize was won by Miss Smith, both were pieces of china painted in La France roses. The consolation prize, a bunch of La France roses, was received by Mrs. Williams.

The beautiful luncheon served in a setting of roses and smilax, had for the ice-course miniature La France roses, and the cakes were iced in the same effect.

There were seven tables of guests present.

Mrs. Leech to Visitors.

Mrs. Thomas C. Leech gave a very delightful card-party on Monday afternoon at her home on Fountain avenue, in compliment to Mrs. William Hughes and her guests Mrs. Robert Garrett, Mrs. James Williams and Miss Selena Smith of Princeton. The game prize was won by Mrs. George Flournoy. Mrs. Robert Phillips captured the lone hand prize. Each honor-guest was presented with a pretty plaque of fine china. An attractive course-luncheon followed the game. Mrs. Leech's guests were: Mrs. William Hughes, Mrs. James Williams, of Princeton, Ky.; Mrs. Robert Garrett, of Princeton; Mrs. Robert Clarke, of New York; Mesdames John W. Keller, Eli Boone, Saunders Fowler, Birdie Campbell, Frank Rieke, Louis Rieke, I. D. Wilcox, Oscar Gregory, Victor Voris, Ben Wellie, A. R. Meyers, J. W. Scott, George Flournoy, Robert B. Phillips, George Langstaff, Jr., Charles Wheeler, L. A. Washington, Miss Selena Smith, of Princeton; Miss Arnie James, of Evansville; Miss Claribel Rieke, Miss Elizabeth Sinnott.

Entre Nous Club.

Mrs. Henry Grace entertained the Entre Nous club on Friday afternoon, in farewell before her departure for St. Louis. It was an informal little affair with only the club members present. The first prize was won by Miss Monima Hopkins, and the second prize by Miss Blanche Hills. A delightful course-luncheon was served.

At the short business meeting that was held after the game, Mrs. Grace resigned as president of the club, which position she has held since its organization two years ago, when the members were debutantes. Her resignation was accepted with deep regret and the future president will be announced later.

Those present were: Mrs. Henry Grace, Misses Nell Holland, Marjorie Bagby, Robbie Loving, May Owen Monima Hopkins, Frances Coleman Kella Coleman, Frances Terrell, Ethel Brooks, Blanche Hills, Sarah Sanders, Rella Hatfield.

Informal Evening to Miss Smith.

Miss Rella Coleman and Miss Frances Coleman gave a very delightful informal little card party on Monday evening at their home on West Jefferson street, in compliment to Miss Selena Smith of Princeton, the attractive guest of Mrs. William Hughes. After the game a very delightful luncheon was served. Those present were: Misses Selena Smith, Ethel Brooks, Blanche Hills, Rella Coleman, Frances Coleman; Messrs. John Brooks Douglas Bagby, Harry Splain, Horace Sowell, Grover Jackson.

Five Hundred Club Entertained.

Mrs. Henry Bradley was the hostess of the "Five Hundred" club on Tuesday afternoon at her home on Jeerson street. A number of out-of-town visitors were present beside the club members, lending additional interest to the pleasant occasion.

Mrs. M. G. Cope won the club prize and presented it to Mrs. Robert Garrett of Princeton. The visitor's prize was won by Mrs. Robert Clark of New York. The luncheon was attractively served in two courses.

Those present were: Mrs. W. M. Rawls, of Evansville, Ind.; Mrs. Robert Clark, of New York; Mrs. James

Williams, of Princeton; Mrs. Robert Garrett, of Princeton; Miss Arnie James, of Evansville; Miss Selena Smith, of Princeton; Mesdames Armour Gardner, William Hughes, Birdie Campbell, John W. Keller, J. C. Flournoy, James P. Smith, Saunders Fowler, Ben Wellie, Will Bradshaw, Jr., Thomas C. Leech, Robert B. Phillips, Victor Voris, M. G. Cope, Hal Corbett, L. A. Washington, Oscar L. Gregory, I. D. Wilcox, Edmund P. Noble, A. R. Meyers, Miss Elizabeth Sinnott.

Comus Club.

The Comus club of the South Side was pleasantly entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Parkman at their home on South Fourth street on Monday evening. Miss Ethel McMahon won the ladies' prize and Mr. Alfred Horgan, the gentleman's prize.

The next meeting of the club will be with Mr. Clifford Blackburn on South Sixth street.

Pleasant Birthday Party.

Master Harry Cohen, of South Sixth street gave an enjoyable party on Tuesday night in celebration of his 11th birthday. Games and refreshments were pleasant features of the evening. Those present were: Portia Glynn, Marcin Glynn, Ruby Rudolph, Flora McKinnie, Clara Moss, Flossie Lieke, Erma Nichols, Ethel Byrd, Mary Bryant, Miss Mand Byrd, Fred Bahr, Roy Bahr, Jim Byrd, Nelson Broadfoot, Myrt Sloan, Harry Sloan, Sam Sloan, John McCullom, Vern Wade, Harry Cohen, Morse Cohen, Will Petter, Rahul Mason.

C. L. U. Ball.

The Central Labor Union is arranging for a grand ball to be given on the night of Monday, January 22, at the Brunswick Hall, that promises to be one of the largest and most successful affairs ever given in the city.

The committee having it in charge is sparing no pains to make it a delightful occasion in every particular, and elaborate details are being arranged. This committee is composed of Mr. George Wilson Walters, chairman, Messrs. W. A. Downs, John McGarigal, L. B. Langston and Harry Evans.

Informal Church Reception.

The "pious supper" served in the Guild hall of the Grace church parish house on Tuesday evening, was a most delightful affair. The tables were elaborately set with a charming effect of silver chandeliers and flowers decorations, and were presided over by the hostesses of the evening, but a pleasant informality characterized the occasion. The bountiful spread was highly enjoyed by many of the parish and their guests. Music, conversation and clever "after-supper" stories completed the evening's pleasure. Rev. David Cady Wright, the rector, proved the cleverest of hosts, and abounded in hospitality.

Delphic Club.

The Delphic club held its regular weekly meeting on Tuesday morning at the Carnegie library and an interesting discussion on "The Women of France" series.

"Marguerite de Valois" was cleverly presented by Mrs. George Flournoy. "Charmante Gabrielle" was interestingly featured by Mrs. A. R. Meyers. Owing to a business meeting of the club the other literary work of the morning was adjourned until next week.

Informal Muscular to Visitors.

Mrs. Henry Overby's musical afternoon on Friday in honor of Mrs. Robert Garrett, Mrs. James Williams and Miss Selena Smith, of Princeton, was a very charming affair. The handsome Overby home on Fountain avenue is ideal for entertaining, and the rooms were most attractive in their decorations.

An impromptu musical conversation, varied by attractive music marked the afternoon. The musical features were contributed by Miss Allie Bagby, Mr. Harry Gilbert and Mr. Emmet Bagby. Miss Bagby, also, gave a reading. Delightful refreshments were served in conclusion.

Church Entertainment.

An enjoyable entertainment was given at the Trimble Street Methodist church on Tuesday evening. Chas. Taggart, "The Man from Vermont," a very clever impersonator, was greeted by a large audience. This is the third of the lecture-course series being given under the auspices of this church.

Surprise Party to Bride and Groom.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Hirschfeld were given a pleasant surprise party on Sunday evening by a number of their friends, at their home, 422 North Fourth street. Refreshments were served and the occasion was very enjoyable.

Miss May Davis Honored.

Yesterday's Mayfield Messenger says: "In honor of visiting young ladies in the city, and a few limited friends, Miss Teddie Key entertained last evening, at the home of her father, with a six-o'clock dinner. The pretty dining-room was tastefully decorated, a color scheme of pink and blue being carried out in a charming manner. Those present were: Misses Elizabeth Dallam, of St. Louis; Irene Stout, of Cumberland City, Tenn.; May Davis, of Paducah; Alice Cox, Willie Carr, Grace Gardner and Lucie Thomas, of this city."

The honorees were guests at the Cooley-Winter wedding, and pink and blue were the wedding colors.

Crescendo Club.

The regular bi-weekly meeting of the Crescendo club was held on Thursday afternoon at the studio of Miss Virginia Newell on North Seventh street. Miss Adine Morton was the leader for the afternoon and the Christmas number of Etude was discussed by Miss Newell and Mrs. Chas. Simms. An attractive musical program was rendered.

Several visitors from the Matinee Musical club were present.

Banquet to Lodge.

The Royal Arch Masons held introductory services at the Fraternity building on Tuesday from 4 to 11 p. m. At 6:30 a delightful and elaborate supper was served by the ladies of the Eastern Star.

Pleasant Affair.

Mrs. George of North 13th street, entertained very pleasantly on Thursday evening in compliment to her cousin Miss Joy Young. Delightful refreshments were served and the guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Harper, Miss Betty Harper, of Mayfield, Misses Joy Young, Mayne Katterjohn, Clara Boger, Madge Howell; Messrs. Oscar Liebel, John Greif, Jed Elliott, Clarence Liebel, Ben Scott.

The Magazine Club.

Miss Frances Gould was hostess to the Magazine club on Thursday afternoon, entertaining very delightfully at her home "The Ferns."

Clever reports were given from a number of the current magazines. The responses to roll call were made with quotations from Edith Wharton, and incidentally her recent book

ELECTION LAW CHANGES.

The proposed changes in the election laws are said to be directed solely at Louisville. Some of them might not be good for the remainder of the state and the Lexington Herald remarks:

"There can be no argument of the question as to the need of some changes in our election laws. While methods throughout the state could be greatly improved, the conditions in Louisville are most serious and it is to meet the situation there that there is the greatest demand for reform. The people of the metropolis of the state are entitled to the legal means for establishing and maintaining majority rule, and a Democratic legislature should not be afraid to acknowledge this right and to take whatever steps may be necessary for its complete security."

"The Herald is not now prepared to say that all of the changes proposed by the Louisville Bar Association should be adopted, but this bill at least brings the matter to the attention of the legislature and the people of the state, and it is entitled to most serious consideration at the hands of both."

Senator Chauncey Depew does not take well to the idea of resigning. Chauncey may have been a grifter of the respectable, pious class, but he is about right in declining to let the New York legislature dictate his course as to resigning as United States senator. The men who have asked him to resign are not the men who elected him, and there is no certainty that they represent the sentiment of the people. But even if they had any right to ask him to resign, there is no law compelling him to comply. From what has always been reported of New York legislatures, the members themselves are not above suspicion. In fact, while a good deal of the insurance money was traced back to Chauncey Depew, there is no telling how much might have been traced back to members of the legislature if the trail had not been destroyed.

A Frankfort dispatch blandly announces that an effort is to be made to increase the salary of railroad commissioner from $2,000 to $3,000 a year. One reason is that the duties have become so onerous that the commissioners "have no time to attend to other business." It is a pity they are not given so many days out of every week for their private business. Of course the law intends that they shall be allowed to count the amount of time on which he is drawn. The state, no business he and to it.

The railroad commissioners may deserve larger salaries, but at the present salary the office will never go begging.

A good work for the present legislature to do is to make some radical change in the law concerning state revenue agents, which, while protecting the state's interest, will also protect the taxpayer against the annoyance of an irresponsible creature who brings a hundred suits in the hope of getting two that will stick. It's a dirty shame, and the sooner it is stopped the better.—Frankfort State Journal. The Journal might have added that the office of revenue agent should never have been created in the first place. It was intended largely for graft purposes. It is the assessors' duty to do for the salary he is paid—and seldom earns—what the people have to pay the revenue agents a large commission to do.

Mayfield has begun to doubt the propriety of having free postal delivery, judging from the expressions of some of the papers. One says that the cost of new sidewalks, streets, house numbers, signs and such things, will be about five times what the benefits of free delivery are worth to the people. It is such old foggy sentiment as this that makes a place a village and keeps it one. Mayfield should already have had, and had years ago, the streets, sidewalks, house numbers and other things, she now needs, whether she had free delivery or not.

If anyone has been done an injustice in the new city license ordinance, the wrong should be righted. If not, the members of the legislative boards should pay no attention to complaints and protests. Because any class may imagine or aver that its license is too high, is no sign it is true. It is not the one to judge. A license ordinance will never be drafted that will suit everyone, for no matter how low a license is put, there will be those who think it is too high.

Poultny Bigelow was on the isthmus of Panama just twenty-eight hours, and yet he came back professing to know more about conditions and events than men who have spent months there. His vapors will doubtless be accorded the credence they deserve, which is not much.

RAILROAD WON

In Damage Suit of a Paducah Traveling Man at Wickliffe.

An echo of the late yellow fever quarantine was heard yesterday at Wickliffe in the suit of W. B. Mills, a Simmons Hardware company traveling man residing at Paducah, against the M. and O. railroad for $2,000. The plaintiff claimed that the conductor of a south-bound M. and O. train on August 27, refused to permit him to ride from Wickliffe to South Columbus.

The road contended that Mills was not supplied properly with a health certificate, the one which he submitted being issued at Trenton, Tenn., on August 3, and certifying that he was a resident of Gibson county, Tenn. The road further contended that the passenger was debarred from riding on its train by a government inspector from the marine hospital service.

The plaintiff admitted on cross examination that he was not a resident of Tennessee and that he had purchased the certificate at Trenton for 25 cents. The jury after four hours deliberation found for the railroad.

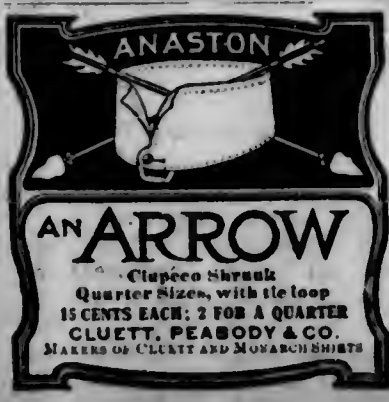

TESTS BEGIN

In Public Schools Next Week to Determine Part of Pupils' Percentage.

The review work in the Paducah public schools is going on and next week the tests will begin. These tests count 2-5 of the percent and the work of the pupil the entire term counts the other three-fifths, so the tests are not so much to be dreaded. Tests are held monthly and count a certain percent of the total. This method has been employed for several years in the schools and has proven successful.

The attendance in the schools has been good, the pupils interested in the work and everything points to a very successful first term.

"This," said the agent, "is the costliest little flat in Harlem." "Yes?" replied the man. "Oh, there's no doubt about that at all." "That's so; there isn't any room for doubt, is there?"—Philadelphia Ledger.

O WRITTEN AT RANDOM. O
O O O O O O O O O O

Mr. A. Foreman, of the firm of Foreman Brothers & Co., is in Chicago buying machinery for the new store his firm will shortly open here. He had not been in Chicago in many years and writes to his associates in business as follows, a very humorous letter and characteristic of Mr. Foreman's nature:

Chicago, Jan. 10, 1905.

Dear Boys:— I am tired out hunting them; they are too far apart. I took a train today and went down near Paducah to find the Western Electric Co. The Chicago Wreckage Co. is 18 miles out in the lake; had to use skates seven miles of the way. One firm I wanted to see is on the top floor of 137-story building and it was so windy the balloons were not running, but I got them by wireless telegraphy, and they were not in.

I burned my memorandum book as I figured it would take 23 months to call on the firms I had listed, but I can remember enough to keep me here 12 weeks. Board does not cost anything here. Mr. Anheuser furnishes it, but the street car fare is so high.

They had heard about our new store and several firms were getting presents ready to send to our opening. One firm had a beautiful office railing, done in antique and old copper, nearly done, to send to us. They looked quite foolish when I stepped in and handed them my card, as they had intended to surprise us with it. Mr. Hearst hunted me up at the dining room, and informed me he would have a representative on the ground the day of our opening and try to scoop the Paducah papers. I have not read all the news since I have been here, as the papers are so large, and the rooms at the hotel so small, that I can't open the paper up, and get at the inside facts.

I tried to get some of the firms by telephone, but you have to stand in line and I am about 2 blocks behind each telephone, so I just write them: a note and say I will ring them up in a few days.

I think I will go to Cincinnati tomorrow, as I hear it is not crowded there.

You need not write me, as there must be a bargain sale on at the postoffice, as you cannot get near it. Several towns near here have moved in the city, so the population has increased wonderfully since I arrived. So, if I stay awhile, I may be in Paducah without leaving here. There has been no snow here yet, there was such a remonstrance against it that they called it off, but there is plenty of water.

I will try and get home this winter. With best wishes,

AL.

Willis Mcnat, who is in jail pending trial for murder, has a sense of humor which was exhibited recently in a revival service held at the jail. Several ladies asked him to pray, which he did, and after he had finished one asked him if he did not feel saved.

"Well," he replied, glancing at the iron bars about him, "I guess I feel pretty safe in here, at any rate."

Attorney C. C. Grassham says that Livingston county has the oldest county judge in the country in the present incumbent, J. M. Davis.

Judge Davis is 60 years of age, but making his address upon being sworn in the first of the month he said, "I want to thank the good people of Livingston county for the great honor they have bestowed upon me, and I am grateful to God because I have achieved my ambition. I have been here for three centuries, and for two centuries it has been my fondest hope, my one great desire to occupy the judge's office of this county."

The nonchalance with which some prisoners take their arrest is something to be wondered at.

When Detectives Moore and Baker arrested Major Galtier, an alleged negro murderer here, the prisoner did not seem to be in the least concerned about it. The detectives walked up, informed Galtier that they wanted him and to consider himself under arrest. The negro greeted them as he would any other stranger and calmly and quietly held out his hands to be handcuffed.

When the city hall was reached and Galtier given a seat in the court room while the jailer prepared his cell, he drew a deep breath. "So you say I gave you a hard chase?" he inquired of the detectives. "I did not think you all knew me, but it was no surprise to meet up with you." He talked as if it was a very ordinary happening of no importance.

Those who are unacquainted with the inner workings of the police department little know of the real work of the Man Behind the Buttons, and do not appreciate him as he should be. The public sits and reads its papers telling of the capture of some celebrated criminal, little dreaming of the many weeks often spent by the police in working ruses and tricks to effect the fugitive's capture. It is hard work to police correctly, and the policeman does not always get his just dues from the public.

A good illustration of the work of uniformed police is seen in the arrest of Bernard Schulte, whose real name is Sulte, a young man who is now in jail pending trial for passing worthless checks to secure clothes and board. Officers Aaron Hurley and Henry Singery learned that Sulte had started out traveling for a St. Louis candy house and located him first at Jackson, Tenn. He slipped them there but was again located at another Tennessee town, but managed to get away again. All this time Sulte was in total ignorance that he was being watched and sought after. When he hit Fulton, Officer Hurley went down after him but was again disappointed—his man had gone.

Several days later a friend came here from Cairo "broke" and the officers "staked" him for his breakfast. The "friend" told the police that he had seen Sulte in Cairo and believed him still there. The police paid the man's way back to Cairo and in addition paid him to meet Sulte and introduce him to some Cairo policeman. The police then telephoned the Cairo officers and the next day Sulte received his introduction and was arrested.

A well known resident of the North Side recently played an unusual joke on a neighbor, a fond young mother.

The person in question went to the neighbor and borrowed the baby, presumably to show it to friends who were calling at his house. The baby is an unusually beautiful infant, and the mother felt proud in the interest taken in the cherub. She readily consented to let the child be taken away for a short time.

Some little time after the infant had been taken away the door bell rang and the young mother answered the call. She opened the door and saw the neighbor to whom she had given the child standing near the edge of the porch holding the baby tenderly in his arms.

Without a word of warning he tossed the baby towards the mother. It was fully ten feet between the two and the infant was pitched several feet high into the air to insure safe landing in the mother's arms. There was a piercing shriek when the mother saw the infant leave the neighbor's arms and she nearly fainted when the supposed child hit the floor.

When she finally collected her wits sufficiently to snatch the child up off the floor she found that it was nothing more than a bundle of rags dressed in baby clothes. The neighbor had only fitted out the dummy child to play a joke on the young mother.

William H. Tooker, who plays the part of Lynch, the mulatto lieutenant governor in "The Clansman," is an artist who knows what it is to reap the laurels of his profession without enjoying them to any hilarious extent.

He has been playing in the south and his part is one that is very repulsive to most people. The fact that he plays it well is all the worse for him, because the more real he makes it, the more unpleasant it becomes for him. In some places in the south the hissing, threatening exclamations and general feeling of indignation became so pronounced, that he was forced to go before the curtain and assure the hot-heads and others carried away by the play, that he was only playing the part for a living, and did not in any way endorse the sentiments he had to express. Fortunately this called the audience to its senses and he was able to proceed with more equanimity.

Many thought that Thomas Dixon would be here with the play, but he is with the New York company. Mr. Dixon has been in Paducah two or three times, however, and lectured at the old Morton's opera house.

BIG SAVING.

From New Arrangement I. C. Is About to Enforce.

The scrap iron furnace which the I. C. has been preparing to install in the local blacksmith shops will be completed this month.

The boiler which will be used in generating steam to run the steam hammers was taken into the shop this morning and the furnace is being built. All scrap iron will be melted in the furnace and the heat will generate steam in the boiler sufficient to operate the steam hammers. This will be an economical move for the company which has had to send all scrap iron away heretofore.

Circuit Court Lead.

The suit of Ed Alexander, administrator of his daughter Elsie Alexander, age two years, against the Paducah City Railway company, was yesterday afternoon dismissed without prejudice in circuit court after the jury had been empaneled and some of the plaintiff's testimony heard.

The attorneys for the plaintiff decided that they would bring the suit again after securing additional evidence and rearranging their plans for carrying on the prosecution, and had it dismissed.

Before the adjournment of court
the suit was brought again and will come up for trial the second time at the next term of court. The suit was brought to recover $10,000 damages for the death of the child, who was killed on the 14th of July by being struck by a street car. She died a few days after the accident.

In the case of J. N. Cathey against Motion with reasons for a new trial was filed in the case of Ida Steinbraker against the Paducah City Railway Co.

This morning the case of Dr. J. D.
Smith against the Paducah Railway company, was concluded in argument and evidence but will not go to the jury before Monday. Special Judge
Tom Price tried the case.

Dr. Smith claims that he was

Broadway and injured. He was disabled for several weeks and sues for $5,000 damages.

ing his motion for a new trial in the case of Ida Stonebraker vs. the Paducah Traction company. In the circuit court this week the jury gave a verdict in favor of the defendant.

It is a matter of much comment that no cases for personal injuries have been won at this term of the circuit court by the plaintiffs, and in some of the cases the plaintiffs are said to be asking for a dismissal without prejudice so they can bring in suits at the next term, hoping to then have juries more favorable than the present ones have been.

BOTH FOOD AND MEDICINE.

We like best to call Scott's Emulsion a food-medicine. It is a term that aptly describes the character and action of our Emulsion. More than a medicine—more than a food,
yet combining the vital principles of both. It is for this reason that Scott's Emulsion has a distinct and special value in all wasting diseases.
There is nothing better to remedy the troubles of imperfect growth and delicate health in children. The action of Scott's Emulsion is just as effective in treating weakness and wasting in adults.

PADUCAH WILL NOT BE IN A BIG HURRY

To Join the Kitty League as Reorganized.

They Must "Show" the Local Promoters—Other Cities Must Be Able to Stay Out the Season.

MR. GUS THOMPSON TO MANAGE

President Charles Brown of the K.
I. T. baseball league, announced this morning for the first time that he would not allow his name to be placed before the league as a candidate for any office this season.

"I will say this much in regard to Paducah and the stand she will take in the K. I. T. league," President Brown stated this morning: "Mr. Gus Thompson, one of the holders of the franchise here, will represent Paducah at the St. Louis meeting the 21st and I will not be present, contrary to some statements made in out of town papers. I have talked with Mr.
Thompson, who is president of the local association, and find that the league lacks a great deal of being a compactly formed league as has been outlined by some interested in its organization, for Paducah will not go into the league unless it is assured in advance of the standing of other towns which propose to come in. Paducah wants to be in a league but does not want to be in a league which may go to pieces before the season is out. If there is any possibility of any of the proposed towns dropping out before the season is closed, I feel safe in predicting that Paducah will not go in, but will play independent ball in preference."

This year the street car company is not connected with the baseball association. Last year the receipts of the company in fares was a big item to offset the small attendance, but will not go to the baseball association now.

As far as is known, Paducah has no candidate for president and does not care who is elected so other things are satisfactory. There is plenty of time to elect officers after the league is formed.

The Sun is in receipt of a letter from Catcher Grover Land who is in his home town, Frankfort, Ky. "Red" Bohannon is also there, and the two recently spent a week with Arthur
Long at his home near Louisville.
Long played the field for Paducah two years ago but Henderson had him last season. The three hunted for a week and are enjoying the best of health. Land does not know where he will play this season as the Toledo muddle has not been straightened out. He says rather than play in any other town than Paducah if he remains in the Kitty league, he will go back to his old trade—that of cutting stone.

Bohannon will go to Nashville to play with that team. He is to be given a trial on second base.

13TH OF MONTH

Causes Brakeman to Leave His Train and Go Back Home.

Today is the thirteenth of the month and a colored I. C. brakeman while counting his cash at the depot
this morning while the conductor of the train waited for orders, found he had thirteen dollars.

He straightway refused to go out notwithstanding the urgent appeals of the conductor, who did not want to go short a man. He was sure something would happen and was not going to run any risks.

A well-known drummer also turned down an order because he found it contained thirteen items. He had not noticed the fact until he was called to mind that the day was the thirteenth of the month and he then began to count. There are many superstitions among all classes of people, but the big 13 probably inspires more awe than rabbits' feet and all other "hoodoos" combined.

Her Amendment.

Congressman W. Bourke Cockran was narrating in San Francisco his experience in the Far East.

"But we made the best of it," he said of a sampan mishap. "We were like the Gloversville widow.

"This woman's husband, a glove finisher, died, and so inconsolable was the poor lady that she spent $3,500 on a granite shaft, inscribing on the base thereof:

"My grief is so great that I can not bear it."

"Before a year had passed, however, her grief had sufficiently faded to allow her to marry a young glove stitcher.

"She sent a stonecutter to the cemetery a few days before the wedding and caused him to add to the inscription on the shaft the single word:

"'Alone.'"—New York Tribune.

"The House of Mirth" was discussed from several viewpoints. Mrs. Jas. Rudy and Mrs. Birdie Campbell reported from "The Bookman" some criticisms on the work, and other articles. Miss Helen Lowry represented the North American Review with an interesting article by W. D. Howells on "English Idiosyncrasies." Mrs. George Flournoy discussed very cleverly a brilliant essay of Maetlinch's in the Atlantic Monthly. Hubbard's "Little Journeys" was entertainingly handled by Mrs. W. A. Gardner.

A delicious 2-course luncheon was handed after the reports, with the ices attractively served in apples, giving a pretty and novel touch to it.

Mrs. W. M. Rawls, of Evansville, a former Paducahan, was the only out-of-town guest present.

Chapter Meeting.

Paducah Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, held the January meeting on Friday afternoon with Mrs. Frank L. Scott, of North Ninth street. It was a very delightful occasion with some outside visitors present. The opening quotations were from Alexander Hamilton, and Mrs. Louise Maxwell gave a sketch of Hamilton's life. The general topic of the month, "Woman, Teacher of Patriotism," was presented by Miss Helen Lowry in a very strong paper. Mrs. George B. Hart, Mrs. David Flournoy and Miss Jessie Nash contributed some attractive musical features. An elaborate luncheon was served during the afternoon by Mrs. Scott.

Mrs. Hubbard S. Wells, regent of the chapter, will be the February hostess. It will be in George Washington meeting, and the patriotic features will be in evidence.

Box Party to Visitors.

Miss Ethel Morrow gave a box party at the Kentucky theater last evening to witness the play of "The Clansman." The affair was in compliment to the visitors of Mrs. William Hughes and included: Mr. and Mrs. Hughes, Mrs. Robert Garrett, Mrs. James Williams, Miss Ethel Morrow, Mr. Thomas Harrison, Mr. Algernon Coleman and Mr. Charles Allcott.

Complimentary to Visitors.

Mrs. Lawrence A. Washington entertained a limited number of guests very informally on Thursday afternoon at her home on West Broadway in pleasant compliment to Mrs. Robert Garrett, Mrs. James Williams, and Miss Selena Smith, of Princeton, who are visiting Mrs. William Hughes on West Jefferson street.

Mrs. Flournoy's Friday At Home.

Mrs. George A. Flournoy held her usual informal Friday afternoon, yesterday from 4 to 6. Many friends called for a cup of tea and attractive music was rendered by several guests present.

Announcements.

The Cotillion club will entertain with a german on Monday evening at the Palmer house.

The Delphic club meets on Tuesday morning at the club room in the Carnegie library.

Miss Elizabeth Sinnott, of North Ninth street, is hostess to the Five Hundred club on Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Muscoe Burnett will entertain the As You Like It Club on Friday evening at their home on West Broadway.

Mrs. Frank H. Rieke will receive on Thursday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock at her home "1800" Kentucky avenue. Invitations were issued this week.

ABOUT PEOPLE.

Miss Elizabeth Sobree was the guest this week of her friend, Miss Nell Usher, in Mayfield.

Miss Louise Elizabeth Cox left on Thursday for Memphis to attend the Chickasaw ball. She will be the guest of Mrs. Isaac M. Peters and other Memphis friends for several weeks. Miss Cox is a popular favorite in Memphis society.

Mrs. Robert Garrett, Mrs. James Williams and Miss Selena Smith of Princeton, Ky., who have been the popular visitors of Mrs. William Hughes, of West Jefferson street, for the past ten days, will leave tomorrow for their home. They are especially attractive and have been the recipients of more than the usual social attention while here.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Becker Phillips, who kept open house at their charming country place, Woodlawn, during the holidays, burning the Yule-log in the big fire-places, have now moved in town and are at their home 809 Jefferson street, for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy McKinney, Mrs. James P. Sleeth, Miss May Davis, Miss Williametta James and Mr. Harry Gilbert attended the Winter-Cooly wedding in Mayfield on Wednesday. Mr. Gilbert played the wedding music, and Mr. McKinney was an usher.

Mr. Louis Richmond Brownlow, of Washington, D. C., is expected in Paducah on a lullaby business trip, Monday. Mr. Brownlow's friends here are so numerous, however, he will probably have to make a business of his social pleasures, as well.

Mrs. W. M. Rawls, of Evansville, Ind., who has been the guest of Mrs. W. A. Gardner, of Fountain avenue, will spend the coming week with Mrs. C. C. Warren at the Scott flats, Broadway and Seventh street. Mrs. Rawls is a former Paducahan, who is most popular here and is very charming socially.

Mrs. Henry Grace will leave in about ten days to join Mr. Grace in St. Louis, where he is now located. Until she leaves she will be the guest of Mrs. Henry Bradley on Jefferson street and will also visit Mrs. J. R. Puryear on Broadway. Mrs. Grace is a great favorite in Paducah social circles and her going is greatly regretted by her many friends here.

Miss Ora V. Leigh, who is now making her home in Frankfort with her brother, Mr. Edward O. Leigh, had signal honor thrust upon her during the recent legislative caucus. For two nights she got out the Frankfort State Journal while the men attended the caucus, and was the first woman managing editor of that bright little paper. Miss Leigh will not be connected with the paper permanently, however, but will do independent newspaper work and correspondence for the time.

Miss Mary Walker, of Dyersburg, Tenn., will arrive to spend Sunday with her brother, Dr. Richard Walker, who is ill from fever at the I. C. hospital on Broadway, but is now better. She will be the guest of Miss Minnie Ratcliffe at the hospital while here. Miss Walker lived in Paducah for several winters and is very much liked here.

New Kentucky Postmasters.

FIVE ROUNDS

IS ALL THAT YOUNG CORBETT LASTED.

Herrera of California Had an Easy Victim in the 'Denverite' and Easily Put Him Out.

Los Angeles, Cal., Jan. 13.—Arnello Herrera of Bakersville, Cal., knocked out Young Corbett in the fifth round last night. Herrera's victory was an easy one. Corbett's exhibition was disappointing. He lacked the vim and dash that had won so many battles for him, and his once forceful blows failed to inflict any damage upon the well-conditioned body of his opponent.

In the fourth Corbett showed a brief burst of his old time form, twice forcing Herrera against the ropes and landing with both hands.

Early in the fifth, Herrera started in countering solidly with his right on Corbett's jaw and the Denver boy staggered.

Quick as a flash the Californian was upon him and with a series of rights and lefts sent him to the floor. Corbett got up immediately but again went down from a right swing on the side of the head. He struggled to his feet at the count of six and tried to clinch. Herrera pushed him against the ropes and settling himself swung a vicious right to the jaw. Corbett fell upon his face and lay in that position until counted out. He was carried to his corner and it required five minutes' work by his seconds to bring him around.

There was much betting. At first the odds were 10 to 9 in Corbett's favor, but the betting switched to even money, and last night there was no Corbett money in sight at 10 to 9 with Herrera the favorite.

MONEY FROM PILLOW.

Two Negroes Arrested This Morning For Alleged Grand Larceny.

Floyd Smith and Tom Baker, colored, were arrested this morning by Officers Hanley and Singery for alleged grand larceny, and will be given a hearing in police court Monday morning.

They are alleged to have stolen $29 in cash from under the pillow of Walter Marberry, colored, who rooms at 1013 Kentucky avenue, last night.

Marberry retired leaving his watch and money under his pillow. On awakening this morning he missed the money, but the watch was there. He suspected the two negroes under arrest, and this morning appeared before Judge Sanders and secured a warrant.

THOUGHT HE WAS POISONED.

But It Was Only With Arkansas Atmosphere, It Seems.

W. M. Gibbs, white, of Middleboro, Ky., who went to the city hall yesterday declaring that he was poisoned, is better today and will be taken to Riverside hospital for treatment.

It developed that he had been in Arkansas for two years, and had been having hard chills for the past several weeks. He says he has them daily, and yesterday was in a very serious condition for a time, congestion symptoms showing plainly. Drs. R. E. Hearne and Johnston Bass are treating the man and hope to break his chills at the city hospital.

Invitations and wedding announcements are a specialty of The Sun's job department with prices lower than elsewhere.

THE VALUE OF CHARCOAL.

Few People Know How Useful It Is in Preserving Health and Beauty.

Nearly everybody knows that charcoal is the safest and most efficient disinfectant and purifier in nature, but few realize its value when taken into the human system for the same cleansing purpose.

Charcoal is a remedy that the more you take of it the better; it is not a drug at all, but simply absorbs the gases and impurities always present in the stomach and intestines and carries them out of the system.

Charcoal sweetens the breath after smoking, drinking or after eating onions and other odorous vegetables.

Charcoal effectually clears and improves the complexion, whitens the teeth and further acts as a natural and eminently safe cathartic.

It absorbs the injurious gases which collect in the stomach and bowels; it disinfects the mouth and throat from the poison of catarrh.

All druggists sell charcoal in one form or another, but probably the best charcoal and the most for the money is in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges; they are composed of the finest powdered Willow charcoal, and other harmless antiseptics in tablet form or rather in the form of large, pleasant tasting lozenges, the charcoal being mixed with honey.

The daily use of these lozenges will soon tell in a much improved condition of the general health, better complexion, sweeter breath and purer blood, and the beauty of it is, that no possible harm can result from their continued use, but on the contrary, great benefit.

A Buffalo physician in speaking of the benefits of charcoal says: "I advise Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges to all patients suffering from gas in stomach and bowels, and to clear the complexion and purify the breath, mouth and throat; I also believe the liver is greatly benefited by the daily use of them; they cost but twenty-five cents a box at drug stores and although in some sense a patent preparation, yet I believe I get more and better charcoal in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges than in any of the ordinary charcoal tablets."

OFFICERS INSTALLED.

And Appointive Places Filled by the Red Men Last Evening.

The newly elected officers of Otego Tribe, Red Men, were installed last night, and a large crowd of members was on hand.

The new officers are as follows: Eugene Graves, sachem; David Cross, prophet; Clarence Householder, senior saganore; Chas. F. Wistach, chief of records; A. J. Smith, keeper of wampum; William E. Buck, collector of wampum; Al M. Foreman, trustee for eighteen months; Dr. W. J. Bass, medicine man; George O. Ingram, representative to the Great Council of Kentucky which meets in June at Frankfort, Ky.

The appointive officials named by the sachem were as follows: Mel Byrd, first sagan; R. E. Curd, second sagan; Frank Bennett, guard of the wigwam; John Hock, guard of forest; T. E. Grasty, first warrior; A. K. Purdy, second warrior; Charles Cook, third warrior; John Arts, Jr., fourth warrior; W. T. McDowell, first brave; Stephen P. Pool, second brave; Sydney Smith, third brave; George Radford, fourth brave; club-room committee—Al M. Foreman, chairman; T. E. Grasty, J. H. Weimer, David A. Cross and A. J. Smith. The entertainment committee named is composed of Clarence Householder, Henry Leonard and Robert B. Richardson.

NEW COMPANY

Leases Several Lunch Rooms On the Illinois Central System.

The Illinois Central has entered into a contract with the National Hotel Co. to manage all the eating houses and lunch rooms on the system which the road itself has been running. This affects Paducah, Louisville, Memphis, Jackson and Cleveland, Miss., and New Orleans, and the transfer has been made here already and the officials are checking up and making the other transfers now.

The eating houses and lunch rooms were formerly leased by the Van Noy Co., having had it prior to the time when the railroad company took charge of the local lunch room.

Several days ago Mr. J. D. Reader, manager of the local lunch room, was relieved by Mr. F. E. Morris, of Chicago, and last night Mr. J. Burris and J. E. Markel, superintendent and manager respectively, of the National Hotel Co., checked over the local lunch room business with F. M. Dow, superintendent of hotels and dining service for the I. C., and were placed in charge of the lunch room. Manager F. E. Morris is retained by the new company and extensive improvements will be made at once by the new company.

Messrs. Burns and Markel will go to Memphis and the other southern cities where they will make the same changes.

HICKMAN GROWING.

Effort to Be Made to Get Into Fourth Class.

According to the Hickman Courier a census conducted by the Commercial club of that place has been completed and shows a population of 3,443, a result that leaves no doubt of the city being entitled to legislative enactment placing her in the proper place among the fourth class cities of the state. Steps will be taken at once to lay the report before the legislature now in session for action. The population of Hickman has doubled in four years.

The duke of Bedford, who is the ground landlord of Convent Garden market, London, derives more than $75,000 a year as rent for the property. It came into possession of the family three centuries ago, and its yearly value was then estimated at about $32.

DIZZY?

Are you dizzy? Does your head swim? Do your eyes blur? Is your stomach sick? In women, these symptoms are often signs of disordered nervous system, or of liver or heart trouble, brought on by carelessness in regulating the menstrual functions. These functions are even more important to women than the bowel functions to either sex. Even if there is no stoppage, still, a gentle, cleansing, menstrual draught should be taken now and then—every doctor will tell you so. Otherwise the menstrual blood will decay inside you, and will be absorbed into your system, causing such pain and suffering as will make you lose all interest in life.

To cure yourself, take woman's best and safest remedy, menstrual cleanser, tonic and pain reliever, is the old, reliable, time-tested medicine, which, for over 70 years, has been a household word in America, viz:

The Adventurers

By H. B. MARIOTT WATSON

COPYRIGHT, 1905, BY HARPER & BROTHERS

"Have they, indeed, sir?" said Hood. "I am not one of the onlookers, his eyes bent upon me earnestly, his body almost convulsed for a spring. I could have believed the man was preparing a sudden assault upon me but that I knew he carried no weapon and I was of stronger and bigger build than he. But apparently nothing of the sort was in his mind. It was merely the deference due to my position which he proclaimed in that attention. That mask of the trained servant concealed his individuality now as ever. Never once had I seen the well fitted and the real man exposed and naked to the light of day."

"Hood," said I, almost with a sigh of despair at his imperturbable calm, "do you want to stay here indefinitely?"

"Certainly not, sir; by your leave, sir," he answered promptly.

"Then upon what terms shall I offer you release?" His eyes dropped, and there was silence. "Remember," said I, "that no one outside ourselves is aware of your existence here. You may be hidden here till the day of judgment and none be the wiser, and even then your bones will scarcely see the light of day. What do you propose?"

Hood shifted his gaze to my face. "Anything that's convenient to you, sir. I'd rather leave it to you, sir."

I experienced a strange impulse to cry out with some emotion, but whether it was astonishment, anger or a mere sense of the ridiculous, or whether it was a combination of all three, I could not have said. I rose from my seat, controlling my voice with difficulty.

"Very well, Hood," I said. "It shall be left to me, as you suggest." And with that I stalked out of the dungeon and locked the door.

It was impossible to transport loneliness with such a man. I felt the need of reciprocity, whereas dealing with Hood reminded me of nothing so much as of digging at a piece of rubber that will fly gently back when the pressure is removed. And so it must be with Serecombe that I should arrange the details of a compromise, or at least the terms of a truce if not of a permanent peace.

Serecombe was absent from the inn but I learned that he was in Raymond and, taking our horses, Montgomery and I rode across to the little town in the early hours of the afternoon. We ran upon the captain himself in High street and as we were making for the Swan to put up our bags, he welcomed us cheerfully and, mopping his forehead (for the day was very sultry), invited us to drink with him.

"Just stepping across to the Swan," said he. "Come along and put up your toes. Brandy was nothing to this."

I accepted with a nod, and presently we were seated in the commodious room by the window that looked out upon the courtyard, sipping a cooling draft.

"I prefer," says the captain hospitably, "to drink in company rather than alone. And that's the distinction between a drinker and a drunkard, Master Montgomery. Take it from me. With which he threw back his head and took a long pull at his glass. "I have not felt so warm since I was in Abyssinia," he remarked.

"Ah," said I, "you are right, captain. Hot is the word. I'm sure from my heart I envy Hood."

Serecombe picked up his glass, regarding me inquisitively.

"Yes," I went on, leaning back in my chair; "cool, damp dews, cold stone walls and neither the sun nor the moon to soothe him—that's my notion of comfort this weather."

Serecombe paused in the act of drinking and put down his glass. "What is this commotion, Mr. Greator?" he asked in a puzzled way.

"It's no commotion," I replied airily. "My the way, where did you say your friend Hood was?"

He looked at me under his red eyebrows. "Mr. Hood," he said, "is on business of his own. He is a gentleman at large, but he has affairs."

"No doubt, no doubt," I remarked. "This is an excellent cooling drink, captain."

Serecombe pinched at his eyes, continuing to study our faces. Upon Montgomery's, I dare say, he perceived a smile of triumph, for he suddenly put down his glass and folded his hands on his head.

"I fancy we've got to come to an understanding, Mr. Greator," he said slowly. "I'm slow of wit, no doubt, but I begin to see daylight. But I will call on you to observe that I am not responsible for Mr. Hood's movements."

"I have never imagined so," I answered. "On the contrary."

A frown, rather than a smile, crossed his face. "Has it ever fallen to you, Mr. Greator, to be tied in a leash to be—But I reckon as a bar-leister you are not particular about your cases. You have messed up with many a dirty attorney."

"You reiterate me too much," said I with a bow. "I am unfortunately enough never to have had a brief."

"Ah," said the captain and was for a moment silent. "You have Hood?" he asked.

"The man's intelligence was quick; his wits were playing even more quickly."

"We have the honor to possess a prisoner of war," said I.

A FOOLISH PLAN

It's a joy to eat—I welcome my dinner hour; because I rot indigestion with August Flower!

Constipation is the result of indigestion, biliousness, flatulency, loss of appetite, self-poisoning, anemia, emaciation, uric acid, neuralgia in various parts of the system, catarrhal inflammation of the intestinal canal and numerous other ailments that rob life of its pleasures if they do not finally rob you of life itself.

"I'm bound in the bowels," is a common expression of people who look miserable and are miserable—yet who persist in letting nature take its course.

What a foolish plan, when nature could be aided by the use of Green's August Flower, which is nature's own remedy for constipation and all stomach ills.

August Flower gives new life to the liver and insures healthy stools.

Two sizes, 25c and 75c. All druggists.

He glanced furtively at Montgomery. "I will take one-third," he said, "and no questions asked."

"My dear sir," said I in amazement, "you embarrass me. Your terms are too liberal from a vanquished foe. I could not accept such generosity. And now, if you will allow me, as I have an appointment with Mr. Hood shortly, I must—"

But this alarmed him, as I could perceive, for he changed color and put out a finger to catch my arm.

"I will stand in with all of you," he cried.

I smiled, but before I could reply an interruption fell in the entrance of the police sergeant, Jones, whom we had met before. He saluted us, and I made an inquiry as to his investigations.

"I am on a track, sir," he declared. "I can say no more." And he eyed Serecombe attentively.

"You've not struck those gypsies, I hear," said Serecombe, who had resumed his cigar with an appearance of nonchalance.

"No, sir."

"They're here today and somewhere else tomorrow. I hardly expected you, would find them. They nose a scent pretty soon."

"I'm on a track, sir," repeated Jones. "Glad to hear it," nodded the captain.

I went out with the sergeant, but Serecombe called to me.

"What is it?" I asked, standing in the doorway.

An anxious look troubled Serecombe's face. "I have made you a proposition, Mr. Greator."

"That's true," said I gravely. "and I will ask you, captain, to better it. But, excuse me, my time is limited."

"You give me short shrift," exclaimed he, with a bitter laugh.

"Oh, no," I said; "but I dare say you will have time to think over it between now and 4 o'clock. If you can see your way to a more equitable adjustment, captain, perhaps you would be good enough to let me know by then?"

At that I left him and caught up with Montgomery, who had gone ahead with Jones.

"Excuse me, sir," said Jones politely. "But are you a very old friend of Captain Serecombe's?"

"Why, no," said I. "I have not known him long."

"Ah," said he, "an odd gentleman, Dr. Mr. Hood of the Woodman, he knows some queer stories about him."

"He says so, does he?" said I.

Jones emphatically wagged his head. "Very queer," he added. "From which it appeared to me that Mr. Jones might not be quite so smart as he seemed, and also that Mr. Hood was even smarter. What his object might have been in spreading an evil reputation for Serecombe I could not guess, but that he had an object, and a material one, I did not doubt for a moment."

Though I had introduced the idea to Serecombe's notice, and the introduction had had its effect, I had not yet given shape and substance to my plan of setting off the one scoundrel against the other. I foresaw that I could improve my own position very substantially by this system of balance, and I determined to go how forthright to Hood on the same errand. He had failed me in the morning, but perhaps he would have grown wiser in the course of the day's imprisonment. There is nothing like solitude and the opportunity of reflection to bring a man to prudence, and now, too, I had seen to prudence and had a genuine offer to consider. I came to the conclusion that, after all, Hood would not prove obstinate and that the end of the warfare was almost in sight.

In some such mood as this I made the journey to the keep, flattered myself with the success of my diplomacy and complacently contemplating an honorable settlement which would rid me of my troubles, banish these wretched intruders and leave us to the comfortable enjoyment of our share in the treasure of the Vikings.

Dinner was over. The clock in the hall had chimed half past 8. I expected Serecombe at 9 o'clock and must hurry to secure the interview before that. I entered the dungeon carefully and looked the door behind me, as was my custom. Then, turning, I cast the light toward the boxes upon which Hood had sat.

He was not there. Hastily I flashed the lantern round the walls. There was no sign of Hood. The dungeon was empty.

MORE MONEY FOR COMMISSIONERS

Bills Introduced That Will Add Greatly to Their Duties.

Jack Chinn Wants a Law Against Setting Steel Traps for "Varmints."

BIRD DOGS MAY BE KEPT UP

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 13.—Several bills have already been introduced in both the house and senate adding materially to the duties of the railroad commissioners in Kentucky. Tuesday one was introduced in the house asking that express companies be placed under the jurisdiction of the commission, and Thursday a similar bill was introduced in the senate.

Friday a bill was introduced by Senator Harbeson increasing the salary of the chairman of the railroad commission to $4,000 and the salaries of the other two to $3,000 apiece. The bill also provides for a rate clerk and a stenographer.

A strong sentiment has developed in both houses for both of these bills. The work of the railroad commission was fairly heavy before the passage of the McChord law, but since then the work has increased many fold. The three members of the commission are kept moving over the state almost constantly looking after complaints and transacting other business which comes before them.

It is the opinion of those who are somewhat familiar with the work of the commission that $2,000 a year is inadequate. These rate questions also present new duties, and Senator Harbeson is of the opinion that a rate clerk who will class with the best in the employ of any of the railroads should be in the employ of the commission.

Both Senator George and Senator Harbeson will make a strong fight on the floor to have both these laws passed.

"Col." Jack Chinn, now for ten days the senator from Mercer, is soon to assume the role of a sure-going lawmaker. In a few days he will deliver himself of a bill making it a felony to set double-jawed steel traps.

"Whenever you find a man with a shack full of steel traps you've got a man that's too lazy to work," said the gentleman from Mercer. "He hasn't any property himself and he trespasses on other people's property. They set these traps in paths on their neighbor's farms and cover them with leaves. Varmints is what they are after. It takes a varmint to catch a varmint. But they don't always catch varmints. I had a dog that cost me $40 come in with one foot pulled off and another foot hanging. I was up to the Shakers the other day, and they had to kill a ewe they paid $50 for because one of her feet had been pulled off by a trap. The trap is as apt to catch you as it is a sheep or a dog. When it closes on its game the animal is apt to die of hunger and exhaustion. It is inhuman, and no man with a spark of feeling in his heart ought to submit to it."

"I told one white-livered galoot I was going to set a trap gun full of hard lead for him. I got as good a right to go gunning for him as he has to go trapping for varmints."

Some merit is claimed for the bill introduced by Representative Henry C. Miller to prevent bird dogs running at large. The object of the bill is to protect game while nesting. It is claimed that during the nesting season bird dogs while running wild destroy more birds by destroying nests than all the hunters in the state.

Nov. Carlisle P. B. Martin, I. L. D. Of Waverly, Texas, writes: "Of a morning, when first arising, I often find a troublesome collection of phlegm which produces a cough and is very hard to dislodge; but a small quantity of Ballard's Horehound Syrup will at once dislodge it, and the trouble is over. I know of no medicine that is equal to it, and it is so pleasant to take, I can most cordially recommend it to all persons needing a medicine for throat or lung trouble." Sold by Alvey & List.

Dr. C. E. Whitesides Painfully Hurt.

Dr. C. E. Whitesides, the dentist, will be disabled for several days by an accident that happened to him at his dental parlors yesterday afternoon. He was working with some substance from which teeth plates are made, when he opened the vulcanizer too soon, and steam and scalding water spouted out on his left hand and arm.

Mrs. Austin's Pancake flour is best of all. A fresh supply now on hand at your grocers.

GOOD WORK.

Shown in Report of Home of the Friendless.

The board of the Home of the Friendless elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Mrs. Jas. Campbell, honorary president; Mrs. Elbridge Palmer, active president; Mrs. J. R. Puryear, vice-president; Mrs. Chas. Johnson, secretary; Mrs. Geo. Warfield, assistant secretary; Mrs. E. P. Gilson, treasurer.

Mrs. Palmer appointed her standing committees for the year. The first name on each committee is chairman:

Supply or Provision—Mrs. L. S. Dubois, Mrs. A. B. Sowell, Mrs. J. A. Bauer, Mrs. Geo. Warfield.

Admission and Home Finding—Dr. Della Caldwell, Mrs. J. G. Miller, Mrs. Elbridge Palmer.

Clothing—Mrs. Louis M. Riecke. Coal and Ice—Mrs. E. P. Gilson, Mrs. Cook Husbands.

Nominating—Mrs. J. G. Miller, Dr. Della Caldwell.

House Furnishing—Mrs. Cook Husbands, Mrs. Henry Well, Mrs. J. R. Puryear.

School—Mrs. J. G. Miller, Mrs. Muscoe Burnett, Miss Florence Raper.

On January 1st, 1905, there were 20 girls, 8 boys and 20 women in the Home.

Admitted during 1905, 23 girls, 8 boys and 20 women and 5 babies. Good homes were found for 26 girls, 14 boys and 18 women. There are at present 22 girls, 6 boys, 2 women and 2 babies in the Home.

The collection for 1905 was $1-975.92; disbursements, $1,697.15; balance in treasury January 1st, 1906 $281.77. Of the collections $840 was given by the council and $300 of the disbursements was paid on building debt.

The ladies in charge are thankful to the public for their co-operation and help.

Cured Lumbago.

A. B. Canman, Chicago, writes March 4 1903. "Having been troubled with lumbago, at different times and tried one physician after another then different ointments and liniments, gave it up altogether. So I tried once more, and got a bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment, which gave me almost instant relief. I can cheerfully recommend it, and will add my name to your list of sufferers."

DESPOTISM OF HOME

Killed and His Slayer Was Acquitted.

St. Joseph, Mo., Jan. 13.—Another trial in a long list of nonfeudal cases in this city ended in acquittal for the slayer, Robert Fleming, member of an old and prominent family, who was set free by a jury after he had confessed to shooting to death Carl Schultz, a well known civil engineer, on one of the principal streets.

Schultz was the alleged despot of Fleming's home. Mrs. Fleming confessed that an intimacy with him had existed for four years, and that Schultz held her in his power by threats, not only to murder her, but her husband as well.

When the verdict of the jury was announced, Fleming, who appeared very calm, jumped to his feet and grasped the hand of the foreman of the jury. There was suppressed stamping of feet in the courtroom in applause of the verdict, but no other demonstration, as Judge Castell had announced before the reading of the verdict that if any attempt at a demonstration were made the offending persons would be arrested.

Pleasant and Most Effective.

T. J. Chambers, Ed. Vindicator, Liberty, Texas, writes Dec. 25, 1902: "With pleasure and unsolicited by you, I bear testimony to the curative power of Ballard's Horehound Syrup. I have used it in my family and can cheerfully affirm it is the most effective and best remedy for coughs and colds I have ever used." Sold by Alvey & List.

ADVANTAGE GOING EAST.

Free Visits to Washington, Baltimore and Philadelphia on New York Tickets.

Passengers over Pennsylvania Lines may, without a cent of additional fare, visit Washington and Baltimore if, when purchasing first-class tickets to Philadelphia or New York, they ask to have them routed via Washington.

Ten days' stop-over is allowed at Washington. Tourists are enabled to see the many points of interest in and around the national capital; view the magnificent Congressional Library which ranks among the world's grandest buildings; observe the making of money in the United States Treasury; admire the treasures in the Corcoran Art Gallery; go through the Botanical Garden, the Navy Yard, the Marine Barracks, the Arsenal, the Patent Office, the Smithsonian Institution, the National Museum; meet foremost men in the affairs of the nation; see the National Capitol, the Supreme Court, Washington Monument, the State, War, Navy, Postoffice, Pension and other departments; view the new offices of the President provided in White House Alterations; and visit Mt. Vernon, the home of George Washington.

Ten days' stop-over is also allowed at Baltimore, permitting a memorable visit to Druid Hill park, the Pea body Institute, John Hopkins University, the ship yards, oyster fisheries, cotton mills, the many rich libraries, and a few of the stately memorial shafts from which the "Monumental City" derives its name, including the Washington Monument, a column of Maryland marble 180 feet high, Rinehart's colossal bronze of Chief Justice Taney, the Odd Fellows or Wilsey Monument, the Ridgely Memorial, and the monument to Edgar Allen Poe. There is also a view of the business district of Baltimore, risen from the ashes of the $150,000,000 fire.

The stop-over privileges on tickets to New York over Pennsylvania Lines also include ten days at Philadelphia, advantageous alike to business travelers and sight-seers. Visitors may view a wealth of historical features in this city: Independence Hall, where the Declaration of Independence was signed, the United States Mint, where gold and silver coins are made in full view; Fairmount Park, Drexel Institute, University of Pennsylvania, Girard College, Old Liberty Bell, the shipyards, Lengua Island Navy Yard. It is only an hour's ride from Philadelphia to the health-giving air of old ocean at Atlantic City, the world's greatest seashore resort.

"CABBAGE SNAKES"

Examined At Louisville—Not Snakes At All, and Harmless.

Louisville, Ky., Jan. 13.—It has been decided that the white and sinuous specimens of animal life, which were brought to the office of the health department, are not really members of the snake tribe, though they are commonly known as "cabbage snakes." Snakes, as the distinguishing characteristic by means of which they are separated from worms have vertebrae, whereas the specimens under examination are without a spinal column, thus placing themselves in the worm category.

Dr. M. K. Allen, health officer, said that they are harmless in effect, and that if the negro woman who found them as she was preparing a head of cabbage for dinner had cooked it with the worms in the cabbage, she would have eaten the potato and been none the wiser and none the worse.

Imperfect Digestion.

Means less nutrition and in consequence less vitality. When the liver fails to secrete bile, the blood becomes loaded with bilious properties, the digestion becomes impaired and the bowels constipated. Herbine will rectify this; it gives tone to the stomach liver and kidneys, strengthens the appetite, clears and improves the complexion, infuses new life and vigor to the whole system. 50 cents a bottle. Sold by Alvey & List.

Former Bankers Indicted.

Bowling Green, Ky., Jan. '03.—The Warren county grand jury adjourned after a very busy session. The matter of the failure of the bank of F. J. Potter's Sons in this city last April took up a great deal of the time of the jury, and as a result of the investigation J. E. Potter and W. J. Potter, composing the banking firm, were indicted on seven counts for receiving money after knowing the institution was insolvent. The deposits received on the day of assignment were kept separate and afterwards returned to depositors. The indictments returned today cover a period beginning the day previous to the assignment and running back several weeks.

The river is falling a little, the gauge showing 24.4 feet, a fall of 0.7.

It was very foggy and gloomy on the river front this morning and but little business for any of the boats.

The Dick Fowler got away for Cairo at 8 o'clock this morning.

The John S. Hopkins was the Evansville packet today.

The Kentucky left for the Tennessee river today with a good trip.

The Bittorf is due from Nashville Monday.

The Clyde is due Monday out of the Tennessee.

The tie men were in a better humor today. The shortage of cars, which has interfered a good deal with the tie business, is not so great now and ties are moving rapidly. One day this week fifty cars were received at Joplin.

Mr. Will Green, of Petters Boat Store, returned today from a trip in the interest of his house through the mining districts of West Kentucky, and reports the coal mines very busy, and general business conditions good.

A Cincinnati dispatch says: The Harvester passed up with a tow of empties for the Pittsburg mines. The report of the run out of ice from the Allegheny and Muskingum rivers does not worry river men at all. This ice, it is claimed, will have disappeared before reaching this part of the river.

A boat is never launched on Friday nor is one purchased on the same day. A business deal is never made on Friday that can be put off. It is had luck to start a new boat on Friday. An illustration of one of these beliefs was shown in St. Louis a few weeks ago when a firm was contracting for the purchase of a large steamer. The deal was just about to be closed when someone mentioned the fact that it was Friday, and the papers were not signed until next morning.—Courier-Journal.

The Fred Hartwig is on her way from Louisville to Memphis with several model barges containing wire, ties and nails.

The Madison packet, Levi J. Workum on her trip up from Madison Wednesday morning, collided with the empty tow of the Harry Brown opposite Petersburg, Ky., in the fog. One barge was lost but nobody was injured. The towboat Brown was en route to Pittsburg with a tow of empty boats and barges.

The little steamer Des Plaines is now making two daily trips between Wickliffe and Metal Hound, Mo. The boat is owned by Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Panabaker, Mr. Panabaker having the engine in charge and Mrs. Panabaker the wheel.

TRUSTEES APPOINTED.

Men Who Will Have Charge of State College Named.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 13.—Governor Beckham has appointed seven members for trustees of the State college at Lexington to fill vacancies. They were Benny P. Smith, of Cindiz; Tibbitts Carpenter, of Scottsville; Judge Henry S. Barker, of Louisville; Claude H. Terrell, of Bedford, and Judge W. T. Lafferty, of Cynthiana. All the appointments were confirmed by the senate. Mr. Smith succeeds Mr. D. Ferguson, and Mr. Terrell succeeds Mayor R. W. Nelson, of Newport. The other three members are reappointed.

Women and glassware should be handled with care.
